BIOGRAPHY

DJ Hymn, the Venice Beach DJ and true innovator in music, has gained recognition on various platforms, including MTV, NPR, Nickelodeon, Cartoon Network, and Music Plus TV, as well as hit shows like American Idol and Step It Up. He's a highly skilled producer who has created tracks and remixes for well-known artists like George Clinton, Bizzy Bone of Bone Thugs n Harmony, and T-Ray. His work has even been featured in major motion pictures like Hancock, and he's collaborated with major brands like Puma and Ford Motors. DJ Hymn's talent has been acknowledged in the music industry with his winning title in the nationwide Scratch Who's the Ultimate DJ? Contest (Numark®), judged by renowned producers Mix Master Mike and Quincy Jones III. Most recently, DJ Hymn has signed a licensing deal with Warner Brothers, releasing four new songs in the popular cartoon series Teen Titans Go and collaborating with Nickelodeon. Fans can also look forward to his upcoming EP, set to be released in the summer of 2023, featuring some well-known artists yet to be announced. With his unmistakable, high-intensity sound, DJ Hymn is a force to be reckoned with in the world of music.
